

Jason Delaney

Frontier Environmental Services, LLC
Landscape Revegetation Specialist

Professional Certifications:

NCCER Certificates, Osha 10 Certified, MSHA certified, CPR and First Aid Certified, Trench Shoring Certified, Naui SCUBA Certified,

Fields of Competence:

- Heavy Civil Construction
- Stream Restoration
- In-situ Soil Remediation
- Landscape Maintenance
- Irrigation design, installation and service
- Stormwater Management & Infrastructure
- Soils and Foundations
- Surveying
- Estimating
- Planning and Scheduling
- Equipment Operator

Employment History:

Frontier Environmental Services, LLC; May 2016 to present, Landscape Project Manager. A full service design, engineering and construction, construction management company serving industry and the environmental regulated community. Responsible for the direct oversight of labor, equipment and materials to ensure efficient production of all aspects of landscape and revegetation projects.

LPR Construction.; 2015-2016, Equipment Operator and Laborer. Industrial Construction Services and Plant Services with the goal to provide a quality product and service at a competitive price.

Delaney Irrigation Services; 2005 – 2010. Landscape and irrigation company serving the Rocky Mountain region. Extensive knowledge of plants and species that grow well in this climate.

Experience Summary:

Twenty-eight years of experience in plant installation, irrigation design and services. Previously owned own Landscape and Irrigation company for over 10 years. Extensive experience leading teams of revegetation laborers whose primary responsibilities include soil conditioning, seeding, mulching, and all planting operations. He has provided his services throughout the Front Range and Mountain regions. Most recently Mr. Delaney has been in charge of all of the revegetation efforts on our projects for Fourmile Creek, Coal Creek, Greenwood Gulch, St. Vrain, Ingram Gulch, and the Little Thompson.